Philippe
Cocconi

5 DAN

Philippe Cocconi started aikido in 1982 as a student of Tamura Nobuyoshi and became a professional teacher a few years after.

In 1987 he met Malcolm Tiki Shewan and started iaido. In this period he practiced also with Nishio Shoji.

Interested by all aspects of martial arts, he practiced Full contact for a few years, and karate. Meanwhile there is initiated in Kendo, the Naginata, Kyudo in at Judo at the Aikibudo, and finally with Jodo master Pascal Krieger.

This new meeting was decisive. Pascal Krieger, a person of great humanity, he teaches in addition form, and example, the five conditions necessary for the practice of budo - if difficult to achieve - (Jin Rei Chi Shin Gi: benevolence, honor, courtesy, wisdom and sincerity). In Aikido it is adding two: loyalty and devotion. It remains the study of lai and Shodo (calligraphy) with the teacher and the courses Tiki Shewan.

In 1997, a meeting with Kuroda master of Tamiya Ryu gives him a new vision of the IAI. It also benefits to learn Ju-jutsu at this school, whose cornerstone is Mu soku (no feet). The school opens new perspectives and key essential in his practice of Aikido.

Since 2002, he began studying the Muai Thai and free fight.

Philippe Cocconi is now Regional Teaching Responsible in the Ile de France, 5th dan Aikido to FFAB and 4th dan in lai the European Federation of lai.

Brahim
Si Guesmi

5 DAN

Brahim Si Guesmi took his first steps to learning aikido in 1980 with his father. He received his first dan at the age of 17 and his teaching degree at 20.

From 1993, he devoted himself to teaching aikido.

He has built his own aikido and has continued to practice and learn from Tamura sensei, René VDB, Suga Toshiro, Kuroda sensei.

It is considered fast, accurate, flexible and fluid.

Today, he is one of the national leaders in teaching aikido in France and conducts seminars in Europe and Morocco.

Brahim teaches in various dojos near Paris and continues to train both students and teachers.
